Melanoma Patient Education Symposium
The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center Eye and Ear Institute
Columbus, OH – Saturday, May 6, 2017

AGENDA

8:30 – 9:00 am  Registration and Breakfast

9:00 – 9:15 am  Welcome  Phuong Hoang, MSN, RN, CNP
Nurse Practitioner

9:15 – 9:45 am  Targeted Therapy  Joanne Jeter, MD, MS
Associate Professor of Medicine

9:45 – 10:15 am  Immunotherapy  Kari Kendra, MD, PhD
Associate Professor of Internal Medicine

10:15 – 10:45 am  Melanoma News: A Review of Interesting
Headlines  Shannon Trotter, DO, FAOCD
Assistant Clinical Professor and Director of Pigmented Lesion Clinic at The James

10:45 – 10:55 am  Break

Andrew Albright, PT, DPT, CLT
Oncology Rehabilitation

11:25 – 11:55 pm  Coping with Emotional Distress and
Living with Uncertainty  Alissa Banyasz, Ph.D.
Psychology Fellow

11:55 – 12:30 pm  Victory Choir / Lunch  Christopher Urbiel, PhD
Choir Director

12:30 – 12:45 pm  Eye Melanoma Research Updates  Thomas Olencki, DO
Clinical Professor of Internal Medicine

12:45 – 1:10 pm  Patient/Caregiver Panel

1:10 – 1:40 pm  Spiritual Care for Cancer Patients and Families
Lyanna Lee, MDiv
Oncology Chaplain

1:40 – 1:50 pm  Break

1:50 – 2:20 pm  Coping with Distressing Symptoms  Kim Frier MSN, FNP-BC, ACHPN
Nurse Practitioner-Palliative Medicine

2:20 – 2:50 pm  Do Sunscreens Protect You from Melanoma?
Christin Burd, PhD
Clinical Research

2:50 – 3:00 pm  Closing & Evaluations  Phuong Hoang, MSN, RN, CNP

Join us in thanking our corporate partners for their generosity in helping to make this educational program possible.