Great race at Universal Studios

Though it's never easy to get anyone out of bed at 7:30 a.m. on a Sunday, the opportunity to give back for charity always helps — and the Miles for Melanoma run/walk at Universal Studios provided just that.

More than 1,000 runners and walkers participated, including Universal's Donna Langley, Media Talent Group's Geyer Kosinski and Vin Diesel. Event was hosted by Universal's Adam Fogelson and his wife, Hillary, a melanoma survivor.

Sean Astin and Jason Biggs handed out the post-race awards, and even after a hard run, Astin still had time to throw a sarcastic crack about the one part of the race no one was smiling about. "I gotta say I'm really grateful for the hill right about now," he said.
