

You're Invited: Melanoma Education Symposium for Patients and Families

Join the Melanoma Research Foundation and Mayo Clinic for a free patient and caregiver symposium covering topics related to clinical care, supportive services and research.

Food and beverage will be provided.

Saturday, May 17, from 9am to 3pm

Mayo Clinic, Walker Auditorium, Davis Building
4500 San Pablo Road South
Jacksonville, FL 32224

Advance registration is requested, please scan the QR code to sign up. If you are unable to attend in person, an online participation option will be available.

Melanoma Education Symposium for Patients and Families

Saturday, May 17

Time	Topic and Presenter
8:30-9am	Registration and Breakfast
9-9:10am	Greeting and Announcements James Jakub, M.D. Surgical Oncologist, Mayo Clinic
9:10-9:20am	Welcome Kyleigh LiPira, MBA CEO, Melanoma Research Foundation
9:20-9:50am	Melanoma Overview Leila Tolaymat, M.D. Dermatologist, Mayo Clinic
9:50-10:20am	Risk Modification Matthew Hall, M.D. Dermatologist, Mayo Clinic
10:20-10:40am	Break
10:40-11:10am	Surgical Management of Melanoma James Jakub, M.D. Surgical Oncologist, Mayo Clinic
11:10-11:30am	TIL Therapy for Melanoma James Jakub, M.D. Surgical Oncologist, Mayo Clinic
11:30-12:20pm	Lunch
12:20-1pm	Current Treatments for Melanoma: Immunotherapy vs. Chemotherapy Roxanna Dronca, M.D. Chair for Hematology/Oncology, Mayo Clinic
1:00-1:40pm	Integrative Care and Nutrition Dawn Mussallem, D.O. Lifestyle Medicine Physician for Hematology/Oncology, Mayo Clinic
1:40-2pm	Break
2:00-2:25pm	Research and Clinical Trials Amber Baskin, MHA, CCRP Senior Program Coordinator, Medical Oncology – Melanoma Research, Mayo Clinic
2:25-2:50pm	Melanoma Support Group Heidi Turner, L.G.S.W., M.S.W. Melanoma Support Group Facilitator/Volunteer, Mayo Clinic
2:50-3pm	Closing Remarks and Adjournment